BIOGRAPHIES

Three lengths from one source

SHORT

Kraig Adams is an independent filmmaker and creator whose work spans personal films, conversations, creative process, travel, ambient work, and hiking.

MEDIUM

Kraig Adams is an independent filmmaker and creator. His YouTube channel dates to January 2011, and his public work has moved through wedding filmmaking, daily video, conversations with other creators, personal films, ambient work, travel, and hiking. He works across the roles of filmmaker, host, narrator, subject, and collaborator.

LONG

Kraig Adams is an independent filmmaker and creator. His public archive connects earlier wedding filmmaking and daily video with conversations, creative process, personal films, ambient work, travel, and hiking. Across those chapters, he has worked as a filmmaker, host, narrator, subject, and collaborator. His current website brings more than a decade of public work into one source-backed catalog so viewers, press, and potential collaborators can find the original context without reducing the work to a single subject. He considers select partnerships, creative and production collaborations, licensing, interviews, press, and appearances when the work, rights, timeline, and expectations are clear.

Editorial use

Use a supplied biography without adding personal details. Treat every audience figure as dated and recheck it before publication.

ASSETS AND ACCURACY
